CHINESE IN NORTH KOREA SUPPORT GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS

TEACHERS TO COOPERATE WITH EDUCATION PROGRAM -- T'usa Sinmun, 10 Jan 50

On 7 January 1950, a convention was held for the teachers of the Chinese schools at the First People's School for Chinese, in P'yongyang. At the convention, Kim Yun-ho, Deputy Director of Education of the P'yongyang City People's Committee, reported on the accomplishments made in education for the Chinese residents in P'yongyang. The president of the P'yongyang chapter of the Federation of Chinese Residents in North Korea and the director of the Bureau of Chinese Resident Education delivered congratulatory speeches.

The Chinese teachers expressed their gratitude to the people of North Korea whose generous contributions made the school facilities available to the Chinese children. The teachers pledged to take good care of the schools. They also expressed appreciation to the government of the People's Republic of Korea for its guidances, and promised full cooperation in the forthcoming compulsory education program which will be equally applicable to the children of Chinese residents as well as to the Korean children.

Kim Yun-ho encouraged the teachers by saying that they have an immensely important role in the promotion of friendly relations between the two countries, and that they must constantly strive to carry out that role satisfactorily. He said that the friendship of the two countries will last for a long time if we properly guide the next generation of these countries toward a common goal.
